Short summary of the talk:
First, presenter introduce himself where and what worked in the field. He work in Bayzat. Bayzat is technology company located in Dubai, but he live in Turkey. Also,he talked about job opportunities in Turkey(startups, governmental organizations, military) and in word(Amazon/data scientist).

What have you learned?
I learned remote job option. What is done, how should works be? However, there are many career options such as game developer, software archtitect.In addition, I learned about the internet resources related to computer engineering.

Which parts of the presentation were particularly important/useful?
I think the most important part is about remote job option.Because I have acquired new information about this working style.Additionaly,speaker said that technology changed every time,change will be part of life in the endustry.So,according to my department, it is very important to improve yourself with change.

Comment on the talk, the presenter, the company, and their projects.
It was a useful presentation for me, I got some ideas on different topics especially the remote job.
